2013 EXTENDED CONFERENCE

POLICIES & AGREEMENT

Access, Registration, and Time Period

CMSA's online Extended Conference is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with the exception of maintenance periods, for everyone to view the courses available.

Registrants must login (or create an account at www.cmsa.org, using their CMSA website username and password before registering for a package. While registrants do not have to be a member of CMSA to purchase courses, members are offered substantial discounts.

Registration for the Extended Conference will be available thru July 15, 2014 at 11:59pm Central Time. All sessions must be completed by July 31, 2014 at 11:59pm Central Time due to Continuing Education (CE) restrictions. After that time, any unused session tickets cannot be exchanged for additional sessions or submitted for CE credits.

Registration Confirmation

A confirmation will be emailed upon successful registration and payment. If you do not receive a confirmation, please click here to contact Customer Support at Peach new Media, Inc. or call 1-877-728-3904.

Cancellations, Refunds, & Transfers

Please consider your purchase carefully. Due to the nature of online learning, once registered no cancellations, refunds, or transfers of ticket packages are allowed.

Be sure to review the technical specifications and use the system test before making your purchase. They can be found in the "Technical Requirements" dropdown. The test should be done while on the computer you will be using to take the courses to make sure it meets the specifications.

Course Certificates

Certificates will be provided after the successful evaluation of each session. Paid registrants will be responsible for printing their certificates and remitting to the respective credentialing bodies.

It is the responsibility of the registrant to ensure they do not submit duplicate continuing education credits for the same session offered & attended during CMSA's 23rd Annual Conference & Expo in New Orleans, LA. If the registrant attended and evaluated a session while onsite at the 2013 Annual Conference, the registrant may not evaluate the same session contained in the 2013 Extended Conference.
